

FLOPPY BITS

by BRENT NICHOLLS

SEX sells. Sex grabs your attention. You see, just the mere mentioning of sex, and you start reading this feature. SEX, SEX, SEX... Where would the internet be without it? As a newborn fledgling, when the internet was nothing but a few porn pics and its digital umbilical cord had not yet tapped into e-commerce, it was sex that fuelled the raging fire that was to follow. Free porn on the net made me want to check out this new up-and-coming revolution, and it was probably a dick pic that gave you the first glimpse of the World Wide Web. Today, 'sex' is a staple diet of a phenomenon that is something we now simply can't live without.

With sex being such a great driving force, it's no wonder so many websites are dedicated to it. We aren't talking about "I am a 29 year old gay man living in central London looking for some exciting nights in with the right guy". Oh no. We're talking about "Rubber slave into WS looking for a daddy or master to abuse my arse with other daddies or masters". We're talking about posting it now and getting it later. Lust in the cyber dust is what it is all about and, even though many websites exist to create special friendships, casual encounters and to find love (even if it is for only a few hours on a Sunday evening), QX has decided to put our gas mask on and stick it in the oven of fetish desire.

Perhaps one of the most popular websites that attracts those who harbour a fetish, or several, is www.recon.com. The site itself is comprised of affiliate sites that have particular fetish web addresses such as www.clubmuscle.com, www.worldleathermen.com and www.worldrubbermen.com. Each of these sites is accessible by their unique URL or www.recon.com acts as a portal to all of the various fetishes. Recon is obvious about sex and finding those that are into the same things. Who cares what your favourite movie is, the real question is are you a three finger or full hand man? The site is free to join, however, free profiles have limitations such as the amount of correspondence you have, amount of profile views and message storage space.

If you're the type of guy who's throws cats up trees just to watch the uniformed firemen come and fetch them down, or who goes weak at the knees at the mere sight of a man in a military uniform, then www.UniformDating.com is the sight for you. The sight is free to join as a regular member which enables you to look at profiles of guys from the armed forces, police, ambulance, prison and fire services, but if you see someone you like and want to contact them, you'll need to upgrade to full membership which gives more options to search for your ideal person. And, if you're really serious about getting closer to a man in uniform, there's even a section called Uniform Jobs where you can check out and apply for uniformed job vacancies.

clips, you'll have to become a member.

For those who like their men big and hairy, check out www.eurobear.com. The site offers free profiles and 24/7 chat, an international Bear Guide, full listing of bear events, an extensive art section, a bear store with DVDs, magazines and more, erotic stories, free e-cards, and each month new hot bear men! In fact, the bears are well serviced and they should have no problem in finding a cub to hibernate with. If leather, fur, latex-free sex and all this fetish cruising is making you beg for something a little bit more vanilla, then www.manhunt.net has gained significant popularity in the London online cruise scene. A general cruise site, according to Marketing Director Michael www.FetishLad.com is a huge site covering the whole spectrum of gay fetishes from police brutality, firemen, scally lads, bondage, cross dressing, burglars, big cocks, big muscles, Santa Claus, breath control... the list goes on. Online, you'll find loads of amateur and professional fetish pictures, fetish movies, from smoking and feet to bondage and role-play, erotic stories, voyeur pics of real men in real locations and situations from builders on sites to cute guys on the street. There's also a huge selection of self produced videos, unlimited streaming porn, member video exchange with over 350 clips and fetish escorts listings. You are able to view loads of sexy pics by just going to the site, but to enjoy all the features and to view all the sleazy pics and watch streaming

McDonald, MANHUNT is different from the 'other' cruise sites because it is more focused on getting sex now; and that is what it is all about.

Of course, if you fancy something a little more traditional then log onto www.gaydar.co.uk, undoubtedly the world's biggest gay cruising website. With millions upon millions of hungry, horny gay men at your finger tips (well, if they fancy you that is).
